* Excerpt of pertinent information

1. It is stated that Malaxa has offered one million dollars to the Rumanian resistance movement if he could obtain a permanent visa in U. S. It is further asserted that the CIA is viewing this proposition in a favorable light and that they are trying to persuade the State Department to accept it. This scheme has been discussed within the circle of Rumanians who have accompanied General Radescu on his visit to Washington last week.

2. It is possible that Colonel David S. Crist may have been told about the above scheme, as some of the Radescu group have seen him last week.

4. According to Coste, - and this is possibly also General Radescu's opinion - a Rumanian resistance can be based on the elements of the old Iron Guard at present available abroad. . . They possess the experience of previous resistance against the Germans and Antonescu. . .
